

Stitching Memories Quilt Guild By-Laws
July 19, 2010 (Rev. 3)

Article I – Name of the Organization

This non-profit organization shall be known as the Stitching Memories Quilt Guild, hereinafter the Guild.

Article II – Purpose of the Organization

The purpose of the Guild is to promote and advance the art of quilt making, to encourage quilters, and to preserve the history of quilting. Its assets are to be used solely to further these purposes, unless for a purpose that is offered to all members and brought to the Board and General Membership for a vote and approval.

Article III – Membership

Section 1: Eligibility & Rights

Any person 10 years of age or older with an interest in quilts is eligible for membership in the Guild with full voting privileges upon payment of dues. Each member will receive a roster of the members and a monthly newsletter from the Guild. Each member is eligible to use the library and to participate in all guild activities.

Members shall be eligible to vote at general meetings, on amending by-laws, the election of officers, fiscal matters, and any other issues brought properly before the membership. No quorum shall be required; a majority shall rule.

Section 2: Dues

The fiscal year of the Guild will be from March 1st to February 28th. The executive board will recommend the amount for annual dues for approval by the general membership. Dues are payable annually by March 1st. Members who are delinquent on April 1st will automatically be dropped from the rolls.

Section 3: Meetings

The Guild will meet the third Monday of the month at a time and place to be announced by the Executive Board. Special meetings may be called by the President or Board or at best 25% of the members. The purpose of a special meeting will be stated along with a place. Members will be notified at least three (3) days prior except in an emergency.

Section 4: Guests

No one may attend more than two (2) regular meetings of the Guild without becoming a full voting member. If a non-member attends a meeting, workshop, or trip at which materials or expenses are incurred, the non-member will be asked to pay a fee.

Section 5: Expulsion

By a vote of two-thirds of the members present at a meeting, the Guild may terminate a membership, or revoke or suspend specific privileges of a member who acts in a manner inconsistent with the obligations of membership. A member whose termination or other sanction has been proposed shall have the right to address the members prior to the taking of the vote.

Article IV - Administration

Section 1:

Routine affairs of the Guild will be administered by an Executive Board comprised of the elected officers and Standing Committee Chairpersons, with each having an equal vote. A Committee that has more than one (1) chair will have only one vote. The Executive Board may decide any matter not specifically prohibited or otherwise restricted by these by-laws. The Guild shall be governed by the By-Laws of the organization.

Section 2:

All complaints concerning the Guild should be directed to the president or a board member verbally and in writing for resolution of the problem. No business shall be transacted if less than 25% of the membership is present. A majority vote of the members present shall rule unless otherwise stated in the By-Laws.

Section 3: Officers

- A. Elected officers of the Guild will consist of President, Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer. President and Secretary shall be nominated and voted on in alternate years to the nomination and vote of the Vice President and Treasurer.
